2024 Festival & Event Guide

Spring is almost here, and that means outdoor festivals and events are near. From Dreamville, which returns to Raleigh's Dorothea Dix Park in early April, to the resurrected Full Frame Film Festival, to summer music festivals and concerts, food, beer, and wine events, art exhibitions, Pride, and much more, there's so much to do in the Triangle and beyond when the weather turns warm. Check out our exhaustive festival and event directory to find what most interests you—there's always something fun to do with your friends, family, or on your own. And save this special pull-out section as a reference guide for the rest of the year.
